Washington White Blend Taster

Winemakers have blended different grape varieties to create exciting wines with their own unique flavor profiles. In the Bordeaux region of France, traditionally winemakers blend Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon. In the Rhone region, the blend could be Rousanne, Marsanne and Viognier. And others, go outside the traditional boxes to present delicious and unique wines for us to experience. Please enjoy a three ounce taster sample of each of these seafood friendly examples from Washington winemakers.

Washington White Blend Taster | 12.5

glass | bottle

Sagemoor “Estate White Blend”

11 | 42

White Bluffs - 2021

The “wine is an example of what the vineyards do best” with 72% Sauvignon Blanc from Bacchus and Gamache vineyards and 28% Semillon from Dionysus. The wine was fermented in concrete and French oak. It reflects the crispness of Sauvignon Blanc and the creaminess of Semillon making an intriguing match for many local seafood dishes or a perfect aperitif before dining.

Cairdeas Winery “Nellie Mae”

13.5 | 54

Columbia Valley - 2021

Cairdeas, Gaelic for friendship, goodwill and alliance, has created a blend of 60% Viognier and 40% Roussane. This Rhone inspired white wine blend is reflective of Charlie and Lacey Lybecker’s vision for their Lake Chelan Winery. The wine blends floral aromas, tropical tones of honeydew, pineapple and a hint of citrus. With a bright fresh finish, the wine is a wonderful, refreshing option.

Thurston Wolfe “PGV” Pinot Gris Viognier

11 | 42

Yakima Valley - 2021

A favorite of Anthony’s guests, this unique blend has a cult following. 51% Viognier and 49% Pinot Gris, the marriage showcases the best of both grapes – the aromas of peach, pear and tropical fruit from the Viognier and the bright, crisp minerality of the Pinot Gris. This family-owned winery has created a wonderful seafood match especially for shellfish including mussels, clams and Dungeness crab.
